Itinerary

DAY 1

EMBARKATION - Reykjavik, Iceland

Overnight in port

Just as Iceland is a unique country, rugged and remote, yet modern and enjoying Nordic standards of affluence, so Reykjavik is a beautifully diverse capital city. As Iceland's capital and its main center of population, the city of Reykjavik offers a fascinating mixture of the traditional and the very technically advanced. In addition, its natural beauty leaves a lasting impression. Visit the remarkable solfatara fields of Krýsuvík where you'll discover an expanse of steaming volcanic vents and boiling hot springs, framed dramatically by a range of multi-colored hills.

DAY 2

Reykjavik, Iceland

Depart 5:00 PM

Just as Iceland is a unique country, rugged and remote, yet modern and enjoying Nordic standards of affluence, so Reykjavik is a beautifully diverse capital city. As Iceland's capital and its main center of population, the city of Reykjavik offers a fascinating mixture of the traditional and the very technically advanced. DAY 3

Heimaey, Iceland

8:00 AM – 5:00 PM

Heimaey is the largest island in the Vestmannaeyjar cluster, approximately 4 nautical miles off the south coast of Iceland. Currently Vestmannaeyjar is the home to around two million puffins, and many millions of other birds. At around one in the morning on January 23, 1973, a volcanic eruption of the mountain Eldfell began on Heimaey. The eruption lasted until July. The encroaching lava almost destroyed the harbor, but it was saved by constantly spraying cold seawater.

DAY 4

Cruising the Atlantic Ocean

At sea

It could be a shimmering piece of evening wear you can't wait to show off at dinner or something perfect for someone back home. Our shops sparkle with carefully picked selections of designer garments, fashionable accessories and smart gifts. Stop in and be enticed by a wide range of items – from upscale handbags to exclusive fragrances to fine jewelry – in an unhurried setting.

DAY 5

Torshavn (Faroe Islands), Denmark

8:00 AM – 5:00 PM

Surrounded to the north and southwest by towering mountains with dramatic landscapes, Tórshavn is a picturesque port steeped in Viking history. Main attractions include Tinganes, the oldest part of town, with small wooden houses covered in turf roofs. Explore Nordic House, widely regarded as one of the finest examples of modern Nordic architecture; and Listasavn Føroya art museum. To fully experience the Faroe Islands' ancient history, visit the ruins of Magnus Cathedral.

DAY 6

Eskifjordur, Iceland

9:00 AM – 5:00 PM

Rare is a town that greets you with a meandering river, waterfalls and a jaw-dropping mountain, but Eskifjordur is a rare place, indeed. Located on one of Iceland's magnificent fjords, this quaint fishing village offers spectacular scenery (it's Iceland, after all); an outdoor, geothermal-heated pool; a 'spar' (calcite) mine that dates to the 17th century; maritime museum housed in an 1816 building; even a privately held collection of rare stones you're invited to see for yourself. But it's Eskifjordur's surroundings that your senses will celebrate, especially the village's pride and joy, Holmatindur, standing over 3,200 feet high, and Holmanes Nature Reserve, the cliffs of which provide views to last a lifetime.

DAY 7

Akureyri, Iceland

9:00 AM – 6:00 PM

Explore the big city amenities and small village charm of Akureyri, on the shores of one of the world's longest fjords encircled by dramatic snow-capped mountains. As you stroll into town visit the newly built "temple of culture," HOF, which houses a theater, music hall, restaurant as well as the Tourist Information Center. Marvel at the variety of Arctic plants in the Botanical Garden of Akureyri. Stroll along Arts' Alley meandering through the museum, galleries and artists' studios. Enjoy the tax-free shop in the town center. Look for fine woolen knitwear, handmade ceramics, glassware, and silver jewelry.

DAY 8

Cruising the Denmark Strait

At sea

An absolute can't-miss culinary experience aboard Seven Seas Splendor®, Chartreuse conjures the foodie fantasy of discovering a chic, fine-dining restaurant while strolling the backstreets of Paris. Savor 'new' flavors to Chartreuse like frog legs in a garlic cream sauce with rutabaga or bite into the tender veal rack of loin with caramelized endive, grape chutney and the earthy tones of a walnut veal jus sauce.

DAY 9

Isafjordur, Iceland

8:00 AM – 5:00 PM

Discover the dazzling natural beauty of Isafjordur. With its striking steep mountains on three sides rising dramatically around a gorgeous bay, this is one of the most awe-inspiring places on Earth. Trace the area's history with a visit to the Maritime Museum in one of the oldest buildings dating back to the 18th century. A delightfully urban atmosphere prevails with major music schools, free concerts and festivals. Bring home fine handmade woolen items, nautical-themed articles, as well as arts and crafts. Feast on fresh baked goods and coffee at one of the many cafés.

DAY 10

Grundarfjordur, Iceland

8:00 AM – 5:00 PM

While the small fishing town of Grundarfjörður is itself a charming place to peruse, it's perhaps most well-known due its proximity to the most photographed mountain in all of Iceland. Mt. Kirkjufell (Church Mountain) was shaped across millions of years by the force of two glaciers, and today its steeple-like peak casts dramatic shadows at the edge of the sea. A three-pronged waterfall called Kirkjufellsfoss (Church Mountain Falls), often favored as a foreground, completes the epic scene. Visit the town's information center for exhibits celebrating Grundarfjörður's importance to Snæfellsnes Peninsula history, as well as photographs by Icelander Bæring Cecilsson (1923-2002).

DAY 11

DISEMBARKATION - Reykjavik, Iceland

Arrive 7:00 AM

Just as Iceland is a unique country, rugged and remote, yet modern and enjoying Nordic standards of affluence, so Reykjavik is a beautifully diverse capital city. As Iceland's capital and its main center of population, the city of Reykjavik offers a fascinating mixture of the traditional and the very technically advanced. In addition, its natural beauty leaves a lasting impression. Visit the remarkable solfatara fields of Krýsuvík where you'll discover an expanse of steaming volcanic vents and boiling hot springs, framed dramatically by a range of multi-colored hills.
