Overview

Cross four countries on Rovos Rail's Copper Trail, a remarkable journey from Victoria Falls to Angola's Atlantic coast. Follow historic railway corridors through Zambia, the Democratic Republic of the Congo and Angola, combining attentive service on board with a three-night wildlife lodge stay in South Luangwa National Park. The programme also visits copper-mining landscapes and towns along the Benguela railway before finishing in Lobito.

Highlights

- Cross the Victoria Falls Bridge from Zimbabwe into Zambia
- Take a Kafue River cruise and visit a Lusaka elephant sanctuary
- Spend three nights at a South Luangwa safari lodge with game drives
- Learn about the copper and cobalt region of the DRC
- Discover Luau, Luena, Kuito and Huambo on the approach to Lobito

Itinerary

DAY 1

Victoria Falls | Departure into Zambia

Check in at Victoria Falls Hotel before the afternoon departure. The train crosses the Victoria Falls Bridge into Zambia and continues towards Choma, with afternoon tea and formal dinner on board.

DAY 2

Kafue River | Bridge and River Cruise

Enjoy the scenery as the train crosses the Kafue Railway Bridge. Later, embark on a scheduled river cruise on the Kafue River, with drinks included, before returning to the train for dinner.

DAY 3

Lusaka | Elephant Conservation

Visit an elephant sanctuary in Lusaka that rescues and rehabilitates orphaned elephants. Rejoin the train and continue through Zambia's Central Province towards Ndola.

DAY 4

South Luangwa | Wildlife Lodge Arrival

Travel by chartered flight from Ndola to South Luangwa National Park. Transfer to the safari lodge for a three-night stay, enjoy lunch and head out on an afternoon wildlife drive.

DAY 5

South Luangwa | Morning and Afternoon Safaris

Begin with a morning game drive, followed by brunch and time at leisure at the lodge. An afternoon game drive offers another opportunity to experience the Luangwa Valley's wildlife.

DAY 6

South Luangwa | Further Wildlife Encounters

Spend another day exploring the park on morning and afternoon game drives. Meals and overnight accommodation are provided at the lodge.

DAY 7

Return to Rail | Into the DRC

Fly back by charter aircraft to Ndola and rejoin the train. Continue towards the border at Sakania, complete immigration formalities and travel on to Lubumbashi.

DAY 8

Lubumbashi | A City on the Copperbelt

Enjoy a drive through Lubumbashi before the train resumes its route through mining country. Observe the passing landscape near Luishia, an old open-pit copper and cobalt mine.

DAY 9

Copper Mine | Industrial Heritage

Visit a copper mine in an area renowned for significant copper and cobalt resources. Lunch is arranged at Katebi Lodge before returning to the train.

DAY 10

At Leisure | Crossing Central Africa

A full day on board to appreciate the landscapes and social spaces of the train as it travels towards Dilolo. Dinner is accompanied by an Africa theme or smart-casual dress option.

DAY 11

Luau | Arrival in Angola

Cross the border from the DRC into Angola. Subject to time, enjoy a short walking tour of Luau at the beginning of the Benguela railway line before continuing towards Luena.

DAY 12

Luena | Angola’s Recent History

Take a guided walking tour of Luena to learn about Angola’s recent history. Return to the train for lunch and the onward journey to Kuito.

DAY 13

Kuito | Historical Heartland

Explore Kuito on foot, a town in the historical heart of the Ovimbundu kingdom. Continue by rail towards Huambo.

DAY 14

Huambo | Central Highlands

Enjoy a tour of Huambo, one of Angola’s principal highland cities, before the train continues towards Cubal. A 1920s-themed or smart-casual dinner is scheduled for the evening.

DAY 15

Lobito | Atlantic Coast Arrival

Enjoy breakfast on board before arriving at Lobito Central Station at approximately 10:00, concluding the Copper Trail.
