The journey is enriched by classic dining-car service, comfortable private suites and the open-air observation balcony.

Highlights

- Evening departure from Rovos Rail Station in Pretoria
- Scenic rail passage through Limpopo and Zimbabwe
- Visit the granite formations and historic sites of Matobo National Park
- Enjoy an afternoon game drive in Hwange National Park
- Arrive in Victoria Falls, Zimbabwe

Itinerary

DAY 1

Pretoria | Evening Departure

Check in at Rovos Rail Station in Pretoria, where there is time for the station tour and museum visit. Depart at approximately 18:00 as the train travels north towards Polokwane. Dinner is served on board.

DAY 2

Limpopo | A Day on the Rails

Spend the day enjoying the train's lounges and dining cars as the journey crosses the Tropic of Capricorn, passes the Soutpansberg Mountains and travels through the Limpopo River valley. South Africa–Zimbabwe border formalities are scheduled along the route.

Matobo National Park | Zimbabwe's Granite Landscapes

Continue through Zimbabwe's baobab country towards Bulawayo. After lunch, transfer to UNESCO-listed Matobo National Park to explore its remarkable granite formations and the area associated with Cecil John Rhodes' grave. Return to the train for dinner.

Hwange National Park | Wildlife Drive

Travel along the eastern edge of Hwange National Park and a long, straight section of railway. Enjoy a scheduled afternoon game drive in Zimbabwe's largest national park before returning to the train for the evening.

DAY 5

Victoria Falls | Arrival

Enjoy breakfast on board before arriving at Victoria Falls Station at approximately 10:00. The Rovos Rail journey concludes on arrival; any guided Falls visit, cruise or post-journey accommodation should be arranged separately.
